rights of all of them, may themselves call a meeting, but a meeting so called shall not be held after 3 months from that date.

- (5) A meeting called under this Article by requisitionists shall be called in the same manner, as nearly as possible, as that in which meetings are to be called by directors.
- (6) Reasonable expenses incurred by the requisitionists by reason of the failure of the directors to call a meeting shall be repaid to the requisitionists by the company, and sums so repaid shall be retained by the company out of sums due or to become due from the company by way of fees or other remunerations in respect of their services to the directors who were in default.
- (7) In the case of a meeting at which a resolution is to be proposed as a special resolution the directors are deemed not to have duly called the meeting if they do not give the notice required for special resolutions by Article 90.

90 Definition of special resolution

 - (1B) Where the articles make different provision in relation to different descriptions of special resolutions, the reference in paragraph (1A) to the majority specified by the articles (or unanimity) is to the majority specified by the articles in relation to special resolutions of the description of the special resolution concerned (or unanimity, if that is what is so specified).²⁴⁸
- (2) If it is so agreed by a majority in number of the members having the right to attend and vote at such a meeting upon the resolution, being a majority together holding not less than 95% of the total voting rights of the members who have that right, a resolution may be proposed and passed as a special resolution at a meeting of which less than 14 days' notice has been given.²⁴⁹
- (3) At a meeting at which a special resolution is proposed, a declaration by the chairman that the resolution is carried is, unless a poll is demanded, conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.
- (4) In computing the majority on a poll demanded on the question that a special resolution be passed, reference is to be had to the number of votes cast for and against the resolution.
- (5) For the purposes of this Article, notice of a meeting shall be deemed to be duly given and the meeting duly held, when the notice is given and the meeting held in the manner provided by this Law or the company's articles.

(6) References in this Law to a special resolution are, unless otherwise expressly provided, references to a special resolution passed at a general meeting of the company.

91 Notice of meetings

- (1) A provision of a company's articles is void insofar as it provides for the calling of a meeting of the company or of any class of members of the company (other than an adjourned meeting) by a shorter notice than 14 days' notice in writing.²⁵⁰
- (2) Save insofar as the articles of a company make other provision in that behalf (not being a provision avoided by paragraph (1)), any such meeting of the company (other than an adjourned meeting) may be called by 14 days' notice in writing.²⁵¹
- (3) Notwithstanding that a meeting is called by shorter notice than that specified in paragraph (2) or in the company's articles (as the case may be), it is deemed to have been duly called if it so agreed –
 - (a) in the case of a meeting called as the annual general meeting, by all the members entitled to attend and vote thereat; and
 - (b) otherwise, by a majority in number of the persons who have the right to attend and vote at the meeting, being a majority together holding not less than 90 per cent of the total voting rights of the members who have that right, or, if the articles require a greater majority of such persons (or unanimity), by that greater majority (or unanimity).²⁵²

- (2) In every notice calling a meeting of the company there shall appear with reasonable prominence a statement that a member entitled to attend and vote is entitled to appoint a proxy or, where that is allowed, one or more proxies to attend and vote instead of the member, and that a proxy need not also be a member.
- (3) In the event of failure to comply with paragraph (2) as respects any meeting, every officer of the company who is in default is guilty of an offence.
- (4) A provision contained in a company's articles is void in so far as it would have the effect of requiring the instrument appointing a proxy, or any other document necessary to show the validity of, or otherwise relating to, the appointment of a proxy, to be received by the company or any other person before the beginning of the period commencing 48 hours before a meeting or adjourned meeting in order that the appointment may be effective.²⁷³

- (6) This Article applies to meetings of any class of members as it applies to general meetings.²⁷⁶

 - (i) by not less than 5 members having the right to vote on the question, or
 - (ii) by a member or members representing not less than 1/10th of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote on the question.²⁷⁷

- (2) The instrument appointing a proxy to vote at such a meeting is deemed also to confer authority to demand or join in demanding a poll; and for the purposes of paragraph (1) a demand by a person as proxy for a member is the same as a demand by the member.
- (3) On a poll taken at such a meeting, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if the member votes, (in person or by proxy) use all the member's votes or cast all the votes the member uses in the same way.

- (2) Any such minute, if purporting to be signed by the chairman of the meeting at which the proceedings took place, or by the chairman of the next succeeding meeting, is evidence of the proceedings.
- (3) Where minutes have been made in accordance with this Article then, until the contrary is proved, the meeting is deemed duly held and convened, and all proceedings which took place at the meeting to have duly taken place.
- (4) If a company fails to comply with paragraph (1), the company and every officer of it who is in default is guilty of an offence.

- (3) This Article applies to –
 - (a) special resolutions; and
 - (b) resolutions or agreements which have been agreed to by all the members of a company but which, if not so agreed to, would not have been effective for their purpose unless they had been passed as special resolutions and;

- which are passed, agreed to or entered into after this Article comes into force.²⁸³
- (4) If a copy of a resolution or agreement is not delivered to the registrar as required by paragraph (1) there shall be payable by the company when the copy is delivered any late filing fee.²⁸⁴
- (5) If a company fails to comply with paragraph (2), it is guilty of an offence.

(2A) In paragraph (2) “the net assets of the company” means the aggregate of the company’s assets less the aggregate of its liabilities; and any question as to whether a distribution reduces the amount of the net assets of the company for the purposes of that paragraph is to be determined in accordance with the generally accepted accounting principles adopted in the preparation of the most recent accounts of the company prepared under Article 105 or, if none have been, proposed to be adopted in the preparation of the first accounts of the company so prepared.³³⁷

115B Power of States to amend Part 17³⁴³

The States may amend this Part by Regulations.

PART 18

TAKEOVERS³⁴⁴

116 Takeover offers

- (1) In this Part, “a takeover offer” means an offer to acquire all the shares, or all the shares of any class or classes, in a company (other than shares which at the date of the offer are already held by the offeror), being an offer on terms which are the same in relation to all the shares to which the offer relates or, where those shares include shares of different classes, in relation to all the shares of each class.
- (2) In paragraph (1) “shares” means shares (other than relevant treasury shares) that have been allotted on the date of the offer.³⁴⁵
- (2A) A takeover offer may include among the shares to which it relates –
 - (a) all or any shares that are allotted after the date of the offer but before a specified date;
 - (b) all or any relevant treasury shares that cease to be held as treasury shares before a specified date; and
 - (c) all or any other relevant treasury shares.³⁴⁶
- (2B) In this Article –

“relevant treasury shares” means shares which –

 - (a) are held by the company as treasury shares on the date of the offer; or
 - (b) become shares held by the company as treasury shares after that date but before a specified date;

“specified date” means a date specified in or determined in accordance with the terms of the offer.³⁴⁷
- (2C) An offer is not prevented from being a takeover offer by reason of not being made to shareholders whose registered address is not in Jersey if –
 - (a) the offer was not made to those shareholders in order not to contravene the law of a country or territory outside Jersey; and
 - (b) either –
 - (i) the offer is published in the Jersey Gazette, or
 - (ii) a document containing the terms of the offer can be inspected, or a copy of it obtained, at a place in Jersey or on a website, and a notice is published in the Jersey Gazette specifying the address of that place or website.³⁴⁸
- (2D) Where an offer is made to acquire shares in a company and there are persons for whom, by reason of the law of a country or territory outside Jersey, it is impossible to accept the offer, or more difficult to do so, that does not prevent the offer from being a takeover offer.³⁴⁹
- (2E) It is not to be inferred –
 - (a) that an offer which is not made to every holder of shares, or every holder of shares of any class or classes, in the company cannot be a takeover offer unless the requirements of paragraph (2C) are met; or

- (b) that an offer which is impossible, or more difficult, for certain persons to accept cannot be a takeover offer unless the reason for the impossibility or difficulty is the one mentioned in paragraph (2D).³⁵⁰
- (3) The terms offered in relation to any shares shall for the purposes of this Article be treated as being the same in relation to all the shares or, as the case may be, all the shares of a class to which the offer relates notwithstanding any variation permitted by paragraph (4).
- (4) A variation is permitted by this paragraph where –
 - (a) the law of a country or territory outside Jersey precludes the acceptance of an offer in the form or any of the forms specified or precludes it except after compliance by the offeror with conditions with which the offeror is unable to comply or which the offeror regards as unduly onerous; and
 - (b) the variation is such that the persons by whom the acceptance of an offer in that form is precluded are able to accept an offer otherwise than in that form but of substantially equivalent value.
- (5) The reference in paragraph (1) to shares already held by the offeror includes a reference to shares which the offeror has contracted to acquire but that shall not be construed as including shares which are the subject of a contract binding the holder to accept the offer when it is made, being a contract entered into by the holder for nothing other than a promise by the offeror to make the offer.³⁵¹
- (6) Where the terms of an offer make provision for their revision and for acceptances on the previous terms to be treated as acceptances on the revised terms, the revision shall not be regarded for the purposes of this Part as the making of a fresh offer and references in this Part to the date of the offer shall accordingly be construed as references to the date on which the original offer was made.
- (7) In this Part the “offeror” means, subject to Article 122, the person making a takeover offer and the “company” means the company whose shares are the subject of the offer.

117 Right of offeror to buy out minority shareholders

- (1) If, in a case in which a takeover offer does not relate to shares of different classes, the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire –
 - (a) in the case of a par value company, not less than 9/10ths in nominal value of the shares to which the offer relates; or
 - (b) in the case of a no par value company, not less than 9/10ths in number of the shares to which the offer relates, the offeror may give notice, to the holder of any shares to which the offer relates which the offeror has not acquired or contracted to acquire, that he or she desires to acquire those shares.³⁵²

- (2) If, in a case in which a takeover offer relates to shares of different classes, the offeror has by virtue of acceptances of the offer acquired or contracted to acquire –
 - (a) in the case of a par value company, not less than 9/10ths in nominal value of the shares of any class to which the offer relates; or

(b) in the case of a no par value company, not less than 9/10ths in number of the shares of any class to which the offer relates, the offeror may give notice, to the holder of any shares of that class which the offeror has not acquired or contracted to acquire, that he or she desires to acquire those shares.³⁵³

(3) No notice shall be given under paragraph (1) or (2) unless the offeror has acquired or contracted to acquire the shares necessary to satisfy the minimum specified in that paragraph before the end of the period of 4 months beginning with the date of the offer; and no such notice shall be given after the end of the period of 2 months beginning with the date on which the offeror has acquired or contracted to acquire shares which satisfy that minimum.

(4) When the offeror gives the first notice in relation to an offer he or she shall send a copy of it to the company together with a declaration by the offeror that the conditions for the giving of the notice are satisfied.

(5) Where the offeror is a body corporate (whether or not a company within the meaning of this Law) the declaration shall be signed by a director.

(6) Any person who fails to send a copy of a notice or a declaration as required by paragraph (4) or makes such a declaration for the purposes of that paragraph knowing it to be false or without having reasonable grounds for believing it to be true is guilty of an offence.

(7) If a person is charged with any offence for failing to send a copy of a notice as required by paragraph (4) it is a defence for the person to prove that the person took reasonable steps for securing compliance with that paragraph.

(8) Where during the period within which a takeover offer can be accepted the offeror acquires or contracts to acquire any of the shares to which the offer relates but otherwise than by virtue of acceptances of the offer, then if –

- (a) the value of that for which they are acquired or contracted to be acquired (the “acquisition value”) does not at that time exceed the value of that which is receivable by an acceptor under the terms of the offer; or
- (b) those terms are subsequently revised so that when the revision is announced the acquisition value, at the time mentioned in sub-paragraph (a), no longer exceeds the value of that which is receivable by an acceptor under those terms, the offeror shall be treated for the purposes of this Article as having acquired or contracted to acquire those shares by virtue of acceptances of the offer; but in any other case those shares shall be treated as excluded from those to which the offer relates.

118 Effect of notice under Article 117

- (1) The following provisions shall, subject to Article 121, have effect where a notice is given in respect of any shares under Article 117.
- (2) The offeror shall be entitled and bound to acquire those shares on the terms of the offer.
- (3) Where the terms of an offer are such as to give the holder of any shares a choice of payment for the holder’s shares the notice shall give particulars of the choice and state –

(a) that the holder of the shares may within 6 weeks from the date of the notice indicate the holder's choice by a written communication sent to the offeror at an address specified in the notice; and
