- (7) For the purposes of this Regulation, the same rules apply to the time and manner of proving debts as are in force for the time being with respect to persons against whom a declaration has been made under the Désastre Law with the substitution of references to a creditors' winding up for references to the désastre and references to a liquidator for references to the Viscount.

25 Procedure at creditors' meeting

- (1) A creditor who has been given notice of a creditors' meeting is entitled to vote at the meeting (either in person or by proxy) and any adjournment of it.
- (2) The value of a creditor's vote is to be calculated according to the amount of the creditor's debt at the date of the commencement of the winding up.
- (3) A debt for an unliquidated amount or a debt the value of which has not been ascertained does not give a creditor the right to vote at a creditors' meeting, however, the chair of the meeting may assign an estimated minimum value to the debt that entitles the creditor to vote.
- (4) For a resolution to pass at a creditors' meeting, it must be supported by creditors the values of whose votes exceed half the value of the votes of the creditors who vote on the resolution (either in person or by proxy).

- (6) A Court order appointing more than one person as a liquidator may provide whether any act to be done is to be done by all or any one or more of them and in the absence of any such provision, any such act may be done by 2 or more of them.²¹

27 Power to disclaim onerous property

- (1) In this Regulation, "onerous property" means any of the following that is unsaleable or not readily saleable or is such that it may give rise to a liability to pay money or perform any other onerous act, and includes an unprofitable contract –
 - (a) moveable property;
 - (b) a contract lease;
 - (c) other immovable property if it is situated outside Jersey.
- (2) The liquidator in a creditors' winding up may, within 6 months after the commencement of the winding up, disclaim on behalf of the limited liability company any onerous property of the limited liability company by the giving of notice, signed by the liquidator and referring to this Regulation and Regulation 29, to each person who is interested in or under any liability in respect of the property disclaimed.
- (3) A disclaimer under this Regulation must –
 - (a) operate in order to determine, as from the date of the disclaimer, the rights, interests and liabilities of the limited liability company in or in respect of the property disclaimed; and
 - (b) discharge the limited liability company from all liability in respect of the property as of the date of the commencement of the creditors' winding up.

- (4) A disclaimer under this Regulation must not, except so far as is necessary for the purpose of releasing the limited liability company from liability, affect the rights or liabilities of any other person.
- (5) A person sustaining loss or damage in consequence of the operation of a disclaimer under this Regulation is taken to be a creditor of the limited liability company to the extent of the loss or damage and accordingly may prove for the loss or damage in the winding up.
- (6) The effect of an order under Regulation 29 must be taken into account in assessing the extent of loss or damage sustained by a person in consequence of the disclaimer.

28 Disclaimer of contract leases

- (1) The disclaimer of a contract lease does not take effect unless a copy of its disclaimer has been served (so far as the liquidator is aware of their addresses) on every person claiming under the limited liability company as a hypothecary creditor or an under-lessee and either –
 - (a) no application under Regulation 29 is made with respect to the contract lease before the end of the period of 14 days beginning with the day on which the last notice under this paragraph was served; or
 - (b) where such an application has been made, the Court directs that the disclaimer is to have effect.
- (2) Where the Court gives a direction under paragraph (1)(b) it may also, instead of or in addition to any order it makes under Regulation 29, make such orders with respect to fixtures, tenant's improvements and other matters arising out of the lease as it thinks appropriate.

 - (b) any person who is under any liability in respect of the disclaimed property (including a guarantor), not being a liability discharged by the disclaimer.
- (3) The Court may, on an application under this Regulation, make an order on such terms as it thinks appropriate for the vesting of the disclaimed property in, or for its delivery to –
 - (a) a person entitled to it or a trustee for such a person; or
 - (b) a person subject to a liability mentioned in paragraph (2)(b) or a trustee for such a person, but only if it appears to the Court that it would be just to do so for the purpose of compensating the person subject to the liability in respect of the disclaimer.

29A Liability in respect of acquisition of LLC interests²²

- (1) This Regulation applies where a limited liability company is being wound up in a creditors' winding up and –
 - (a) it has within 6 months before the commencement of the winding up made a payment under Article 45 of the Law to acquire, by purchase, redemption or otherwise any LLC interest in the limited liability company;
 - (b) the payment was not made lawfully; and
 - (c) the aggregate realisable value of the limited liability company's assets and the amount paid by way of contribution to its assets (apart from this Regulation) is not sufficient for the payment of its liabilities and the expenses of the winding up.
- (2) In this Regulation, the amount of a payment that has not been made lawfully for the purpose of the acquisition is referred to as the "relevant payment".
- (3) Subject to paragraph (5), the Court on the application of the liquidator may order the following to contribute in accordance with this Regulation to the limited liability company's assets so as to enable the insufficiency to be met –
 - (a) a person from whom the LLC interests were acquired; or
 - (b) a manager.
- (4) A person from whom any LLC interests were acquired may be ordered to contribute an amount not exceeding so much of the relevant payment as was made in respect of those LLC interests.
- (5) The Court may not order a person from whom the LLC interests were acquired to contribute under this Regulation unless the Court is satisfied that, when the person received payment for their LLC interest, the person knew, or ought to have concluded from the facts known to the person, that immediately after the relevant payment was made –
 - (a) the limited liability company would be unable to discharge its liabilities as they fell due; and
 - (b) the realisable value of the limited liability company's assets would be less than the aggregate of its liabilities.
- (6) Where a person has contributed an amount under this Regulation, the Court may direct any other person who is jointly and severally liable to contribute under this Regulation to pay to that person such amount as the Court thinks just and reasonable.

30 Unenforceability of liens on records

- (1) This Regulation does not apply to a lien on a document that gives a title to property and is held as such.
- (2) In a creditors' winding up, a lien or other right to retain possession of a record of a limited liability company is unenforceable to the extent that its enforcement would deny possession of the record to the liquidator.

31 Appointment or removal of liquidator by the Court

- (1) The Court may appoint a liquidator if for any reason there is no liquidator acting in a creditors' winding up.

- (2) The Court may, on reason being given, remove a liquidator in a creditors' winding up and may appoint another.
- (3) The appointment or removal of a liquidator under this Regulation may be made on request by the limited liability company, a manager of the limited liability company, a creditor, the Viscount, the Commission, the Minister or any other person.²³

34 Giving of preferences

- (1) If a limited liability company has at a relevant time given a preference to a person the Court may, on the application of the liquidator in a creditors' winding up, make such an order as the Court thinks appropriate for restoring the position to what it would have been if the preference had not been given.

- (5) In considering whether a person has acted in good faith, the Court may consider –
- (a) whether the person had notice –

 - (ii) of the fact that the limited liability company was insolvent or would, as a likely result of giving the preference, become insolvent; and
 - (b) whether the person was an associate of, or was connected with, either the limited liability company or the person to whom the limited liability company gave the preference.
- (6) The Court must not make an order under this Regulation in respect of a preference given to a person unless the limited liability company, when giving the preference, was influenced in deciding to give the preference by a desire to put the person into a position which, in the event of the winding up of the limited liability company, would be better than the position in which the person would be if the preference had not been given.
- (7) A limited liability company that gave a preference to a person who was, at the time the preference was given, an associate of, or connected with, the limited liability company (other than by reason only of being an employee of the limited liability company) is taken, unless the contrary is shown, to have been influenced in deciding to give the preference by the desire mentioned in paragraph (6).

- (8) In this Regulation, “relevant time” means –
- (a) the period of 12 months immediately preceding the date of commencement of the winding up if –
 - (i) the limited liability company was insolvent when it gave the preference, or

- (2) The Court may, on the application of the liquidator, order that a relevant person be personally responsible, without any limitation of liability, for all or any of the debts or other liabilities of the limited liability company arising after the time referred to in paragraph (1), unless the relevant person took reasonable steps to minimise the potential loss to the limited liability company’s creditors.
- (3) If, in the course of a creditors’ winding up, it appears that any business of the limited liability company has been carried on with intent to defraud creditors of the limited liability company or creditors of another person, or for a fraudulent purpose, the Court may, on the application of the liquidator, order that persons who were knowingly parties to the carrying on of the business in that manner are to be liable to make such contributions to the limited liability company’s assets as the Court thinks appropriate.
- (4) On the hearing of an application under this Regulation, the liquidator may give evidence or call witnesses.

- (5) The Court may –
 - (a) give such further directions as it thinks appropriate for giving effect to the order; and

- (1) This Regulation applies in a creditors' winding up where the limited liability company is, or has been, a party to a transaction for, or involving, the provision of credit to the limited liability company.
- (2) The Court may, on the application of the liquidator, make an order with respect to the transaction if the transaction –
 - (a) is extortionate; and
 - (b) was entered into in the period of 3 years ending with the date of commencement of the creditors' winding up.
- (3) For the purposes of this Regulation, a transaction is extortionate if, having regard to the risk accepted by the person providing the credit –
